

Practice Quiz: Robot Talk

Part A: Pick the Best Answer

1. What is the language of computers? A) English B) Binary (0s and 1s) C) Robot-speak D) French
2. What does "0" usually mean to a computer? A) ON B) OFF C) Hungry D) Hello
3. How do wireless robots talk? A) They shout B) They use invisible waves (Radio/Wi-Fi) C) They use long strings D) They don't
4. What is a Swarm? A) A type of bee B) A group of robots working together C) A broken robot D) A sandwich
5. Can a robot talk to a satellite in space? A) Yes, using powerful signals B) No, space is too far C) Only if it jumps high D) Maybe
6. Which is a communication device? A) A Hammer B) A Walkie-Talkie C) A Shoe D) A Rock
7. If two robots are talking and the Wi-Fi turns off, what happens? A) They keep talking B) They lose connection (Cannot talk) C) They explode D) Nothing

Part B: Tell Us What You Think

1. Write your name. Now pretend you are a robot and write it in "Beeps" (Beep-Bop-Beep).
2. Why is it good for robots to talk to each other? (Teamwork!).
3. Draw a signal going from a controller to a drone.