

Practice Quiz: The Multiplication Master

Part A: Pick the Best Answer

1. What is the "Shortcut" for counting? A) Memorizing or Knowing B) Running C) Skipping numbers D) Using a calculator
2. If you make a mistake, what should you do? A) Cry B) Learn from it and fix the pattern C) Hide under the bed D) Eat paper
3. Why do we practice? A) To make the brain's prediction faster B) To be bored C) To wear out our pencils D) No reason
4. What turns "Slow Thinking" into "Fast Thinking"? A) Magic B) Learning (Practice) C) Sleeping D) Eating candy
5. Which is easier to learn? A) A pattern (2, 4, 6, 8) B) A mess (5, 1, 9, 3) C) Invisible numbers D) Static
6. Does your brain change when you learn? A) Yes! It builds new connections (bridges). B) No, it stays the same forever. C) It shrinks. D) It turns green.
7. Can you learn from a friend? A) Yes (Copying their good patterns) B) No C) Only if they are a robot D) Maybe

Part B: Tell Us What You Think

1. Write down one thing you are good at practicing (Math? Sports? Drawing?).
2. If you wanted to learn to juggle, what would you do first?
3. Draw a picture of your brain getting stronger (maybe lifting weights?).